

World Environment Day (WED) occurs on the 5th of June every year, and is the United Nation's principal vehicle for encouraging awareness and action for the protection of our environment. First held in 1974, it has been a flagship campaign for raising awareness on emerging environmental issues from marine pollution, human overpopulation, and global warming, to sustainable consumption and wildlife crime. WED has grown to become a global platform for public outreach, with participation from over 143 countries annually. Each year, WED has a new theme that major corporations, NGOs, communities, governments and celebrities worldwide adopt to advocate environmental causes.

VISIT TO "VAALVAGAM"

Visually Impaired Children Home for Hope

"As the Commerce Students Union 2018 we engaged in different social activities throughout our period of work. The first activity we engaged was the visit to "Vaalvagam".

This home is located near Chunnakam and about 50 members from the CSU get together for this work. As we just enter the place we were impressed by seeing the principle of the home who also visually disable but doing every work on his own same as a person who can see well.

After explaining the aim of this visit then we were taken to the main hall were the children were ready to meet us. It makes our eyes wet when we see the beautiful girls and handsome boys sitting nicely in the hall. They warmly welcome us.

We talk with them and listen to their sweet voices when they sing for us and then our bothers started singing and dancing with them. Really they were very happy to be with us and it was an unforgettable day for all of us.

It was an entertaining day for them and the committee serve them with soft drinks and snacks.

A donation was done by the committee to the "Vaalvagam" in order to help them in their financial position.

Another special thing happened in the day was we plant some trees in the premises of the "Vaalvagam" for them to remember us for a long time.

At the end we left the place with hope of going again and with a wish in our hearts for them all "Best of luck for all of them to win their lives"
